Before you invest in any fund, consider how the fund would work with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

The mutual fund is an alternative mutual fund. It is permitted to invest in asset classes or use investment strategies that are not permitted for other types of mutual funds. The specific strategies that differentiate this fund from other types of mutual funds include: increased ability to use derivatives for hedging and non-hedging purposes; increased ability to sell securities short; and the ability to borrow cash to use for investment purposes. While these strategies will be used in accordance with the fund's investment objectives and strategies, during certain market conditions they may accelerate the pace at which your investment decreases in value.

What does the fund invest in?

The Fund's objective is to generate positive total returns over the long-term by investing primarily in a diversified portfolio of alternative mutual funds and/or ETFs. The Reference Funds are expected to utilize alternative strategies and will use leverage. The leverage will be created generally through the use of cash borrowing, short sales and derivatives. The Fund's leverage will not exceed 300% of its net asset value. The Fund may invest up to 100% of its net assets in foreign securities.

Each Reference Fund's leverage is calculated as the sum of the following: (i) the aggregate market value of securities sold short by the Reference Fund; (ii) the value of the Reference Fund's indebtedness under any borrowing arrangements for investment purposes; and (iii) the aggregate notional value of the Reference Fund's specified derivatives positions excluding any specified derivatives used for hedging purposes. The Reference Fund's aggregate gross exposure must not exceed 300% of its net asset value, calculated on a daily basis.

How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how Series A units of the fund have performed since its inception. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the series' returns. The performance of Series E units would be similar to the performance of Series A but would vary as a result of the difference in the combined management and administration fees compared to Series A units as disclosed in the fee decrease table under "Fund Expenses" below.

Year-by-year returns

This section tells you how Series A units of the fund have performed in past calendar years. However, this information is not available because the series has not yet completed a calendar year.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series A and E units of the fund. The fees and expenses, including any commissions, can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

As part of the Program, we may automatically switch your investment in Series A into Series E when your aggregate eligible investment in IA Clarington Funds reaches $100,000, if at that time, Series E has a lower management fee.

If your aggregate eligible investment no longer meets the eligibility threshold, we may switch your investment back into another series, which may have a higher management fee. See the fee decrease table under "Fund Expenses" below.

Please see Switching Between Mutual Fund Series under the heading "Purchases, Switches and Redemptions" and "Fees and Expenses" of the Simplified Prospectus and speak to your representative for additional details.

1. Sales charges

Series A and E units are only available under the Front End Option.

Sales charge option	What you pay		How it works
	in percent (%)	in dollars ($)
Front End Option	0% to 5% of the amount you buy	$0 to $50 on every $1,000 you buy	You and your representative decide on the rate. The initial sales charge is deducted from the amount you buy. It goes to your representative's firm as a commission.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns. Series A has higher combined management and administration fees than Series E.

	Annual rate (as a % of the fund's value)
	Series A	Series E
Management expense ratio (MER) This is the total of the fund's management fee (including the trailing commission), fixed administration fee and operating expenses.	2.43%	2.25%
Trading expense ratio (TER) These are the fund's trading costs.	0.10%	0.10%
Fund expenses	2.53%	2.35%
For every $1,000 invested, this equals:	$25.30	$23.50

The table below sets out the combined management and administration fee decrease after automatic switch.

Investment	Series	Combined management and administration fee decrease (%)
Up to $99,999	N/A	N/A
$100,000 (may be across aggregate eligible investments in IA Clarington Funds)	E	A - 0.10%

IA Clarington Investments Inc. pays the trailing commission to your representative's firm. It is paid from the fund's management fee and is based on the value of your investment. We no longer pay trailing commissions to discount brokers.

	in percent (%)	in dollars ($)
Front End Option	1.00%	$10 each year on every $1,000 invested

3. Other fees
